

SAVE THE DATE!!!

Yes, We Care!

*The School of the 21st Century
National Conference*

July 25-27, 2012 • Little Rock, AR

Who Should Attend?

Program directors, principals, superintendents, early childhood educators, preschool/school-age/middle childhood coordinators/directors, 21CCLC program staff, parent educators, school board members

Why Attend the 21C Conference?

- Choose from many special sessions
- Network with colleagues
- Learn about new initiatives

21C Components:

- Guidance and Support for Parents
- Early Care and Education
- Before-School, After-School and Vacation Programs for School-Age Children
- Health Education and Services
- Networks and Training for Child Care Providers
- Information and Referral Services
- Social and Emotional Learning

Invited Speakers:

Matia Finn-Stevenson, Howie Knoff, Sesame Street's Jeanette Betancourt, John Murphy, Ray McNulty, Jared Cleveland, Education Commissioner Tom Kimbrell

Special Sessions on:

Early Childhood Topics, Coordinated School Health, Mutt-i-grees (Social Emotional Learning), Before- and After-School Programs, and Lots More!

Co-sponsored By:

AR School of the 21st Century (AR21C) & Yale School of the 21st Century
Contact us at:
Clinton School District, Attn: Deb Swink
683 Poplar St, Clinton, AR 72031
Phone: 501-745-6058
www.yale.edu/21C