

Explore the philosophical and theological underpinnings of the Emerging church movement with Belfast theologian Peter Rollins

With sensitivity to the Christian tradition and a rich understanding of postmodern thought, Peter Rollins argues that the movement known as the “emerging church” offers an unprecedented message of transformation that has the potential to revolutionize the theological architecture of Western Christianity.

Phyllis Tickle has referred to Rollins’s work by saying: “Here, in pregnant bud, is third-millennium Christendom.”

Meet Peter Rollins at Yale Divinity School Monday December 4, 2006

10:00 a.m. at the Divinity School

Coffee and conversation with local pastors to talk about questions of mission in contemporary culture

Bushnell Seminar Room, S104

11:30 a.m. at the Yale Divinity School Bookstore

Peter will sign his book, How (Not) to Speak of God.

12:30 p.m. at the Divinity School

Peter will lecture on the themes of his book, How (Not) to Speak of God.

Tony Jones, National Coordinator for Emergent, will be the respondent for this lecture.

Bushnell Seminar Room, S104

For more information about these events contact
Christian Scharen, Director
The Faith as a Way of Life Program
Yale Center for Faith and Culture
Yale Divinity School
203-432-8671