

Yale Global Health Leadership Institute

GLOBAL HEALTH RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

An academic forum for faculty and researchers to discuss research in progress here at Yale University. This group presents an opportunity for members to learn and engage in new ideas related to global health research.

“Ensuring Health Equity and Quality of Care for All”

12:00PM • ROSENKRANZ HALL, ROOM 241 • 115 PROSPECT STREET

9/21	NICOLI NATTRASS	AIDs Conspiracy Beliefs and Condom Use
10/19	WEITSE TOL	Mental Health and Psychological Support for Children Affected by Political Violence
11/16	TERESA JANEVIC	Challenges in studying pregnancy outcomes in social excluded groups: A focus on Romani women in the Balkans
12/21	ROBERT HEIMER	Causes and Current Status of the HIV Epidemic in Russia
1/18	RICHARD SCHOTTENFELD	TBA
2/15	ELIZABETH BRADLEY	Health Systems Strengthening
3/22	SARAH BATTISTICH	TBA
4/19	MANDISA MBALI	South African AIDS Activism and Global Health Diplomacy and Governance, 2001 - 2003

Sponsored by the International Affairs Council at the MacMillan Center.

For more information contact: Elizabeth Bradley, Director of the Global Health Initiative (elizabeth.bradley@yale.edu) or Emily Cherlin, Research Associate, School of Public Health (emily.cherlin@yale.edu)