

YALE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
JAMES HUDSON BROWN - ALEXANDER BROWN COXE
Postdoctoral Fellowships in the Medical Sciences
2012

BACKGROUND

The James Hudson Brown Memorial Fund provides funds for research in the medical sciences, including clinical medicine and public health. The Alexander Brown Coxe Memorial Fellowships in the Biological Sciences support investigators of promise in the comprehensive field of the biological sciences.

Together, the income from these funds is used in support of new postdoctoral fellows.

DEADLINES

For scientists with the PhD:

Letters of Intent Due: December 12, 2011

Applications Due: Monday, December 19, 2011

For physician-scientists with the MD or MD/PhD:

Letters of Intent Due: December 14, 2011

Applications Due: Wednesday, December 21, 2011

Notification: late March 2012

Fellowship Period: July 1, 2012 - June 30, 2013

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicant must have an M.D., Ph.D., or other doctoral degree as of July 1, 2012.
- Awardee must have an appointment as a postdoctoral fellow or postdoctoral associate at the Yale University School of Medicine on or before July 1, 2012.
- Applicant must have had no more than two (2) years of postdoctoral research experience at the commencement of this fellowship on July 1, 2012. Time spent in clinical training programs (e.g. internships, residencies, clinical years of fellowship training) should not be counted as research experience unless the training program included an extensive research component.
- There are no citizenship restrictions.
- A faculty member may sponsor only one applicant each year.

TERMS OF THE AWARD

- The Brown-Coxe Fellowship stipend is a minimum of $38,496 for the one-year period from July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013. In addition, the health fee is paid for the fellow from July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013. This award is not intended for partial year funding and is not to be prorated. The fellowship is expected to begin on July 1, 2012.
- Stipends may be supplemented from other private funds, gifts, or foreign government funds, but cannot be supplemented with funds from PHS research grants. These Fellowships cannot be used as supplements to salary stipends awarded by other sponsors.
- Stipends can be used only for salary support for the fellow. The fellow must conduct research at the Yale University School of Medicine. This award cannot be transferred to any other institution.

Download a complete Brown-Coxe Fellowship packet, including application forms and instructions, at: http://www.yale.edu/grants/funding_info/brown-coxe.html