

OISS and the McDougal Center
present

Crossing Cultures:

Dating and Relationships

Wednesday, February 13
5pm

International Center, 421 Temple Street

How is dating in the US different from in other cultures? Is what we see on American TV and in films a true depiction of relationships in the United States? How do US students get to know each other? Join the McDougal International Fellows for a discussion of these and other topics. E-mail mcdougal.center@yale.edu if you would like to attend. Snacks will be served.