

Yale World Fellows Thursday Lecture Series

Sterling Memorial Library Lecture Hall • 128 Wall Street

September 23

5:30 PM

The Burden of American Citizenship: Facing Global Challenges & Responsibilities in Poverty, Trade and the Environment

Panel: Robert Piper, United Nations Development Coordinator, Olivier Cattaneo, French trade expert, and Michael Ma, author of “China’s Water Crisis”

September 30

5:30 PM

America in the Muslim World: Current Perceptions from Iran, Morocco and Kosovo

Panel: Emran Razzaghi, director at Iranian Welfare Organization, Aboubakr Jamai, publisher of Morocco’s leading business newspaper, and Ilir Dugolli, top policy adviser to the Prime Minister of Kosovo

October 28

5:00 PM

Political Engagement, Leadership and Democracy: Stories & Struggles from the Field

Panel: J.R. Nereus Acosta, Philippine congressman, and Cecilia Barja-Chamas, La Paz City councilwoman

November 4

5:00 PM

The Role of Young People in Politics & Beyond

Panel: Cecilia Barja-Chamas, founder of Bolivia’s MSM political party, Tinatin Khidasheli, President of the Georgian Young Lawyers’ Association, and Heather Stevens, former head of Northern Ireland’s Children and Young People’s Unit

November 11

5:00 PM

AIDS in Africa: What Americans Must Know

Panel: Paul Kwengwere, Policy Director for ActionAid Malawi, and Mteto Nyati, top executive for IBM in Africa, Middle East and Europe

November 18

5:00 PM

Challenges of Economic Growth in Developing & Developed Countries

Panel: Karina Dashko, corporate counsel and governance expert for Russian business, Sang-Jo Kim, South Korean corporate governance activist, John Kingman, director at United Kingdom Treasury Department, and Nachiket Mor, Executive Director of India’s largest bank

December 2

5:30 PM

The United Nations as a Tool for Intervention in “Failing” States

Panel: Ilir Dugolli, top policy adviser to the Prime Minister of Kosovo, Nay Win Maung, magazine publisher and Myanmar government policy critic, and Robert Piper, United Nations Development Coordinator