

Biotechnology / Biopharmaceuticals Associate Analyst- Wedbush Securities, Inc New York office.

Description:

Provide primary research, financial analysis and financial modeling support to a sell-side Equity Research Analyst who covers the life sciences sector. This is an outstanding opportunity for the individual who wishes to leverage his/her scientific knowledge and passion for the financial markets into a career as an Equity Research Analyst.

Responsibilities:

Will assist with conducting regular due diligence on covered companies; conduct industry, market and company research; build and maintain financial models; contribute written sections to reports on covered companies; interact with internal sales force.

Experience and Skills:

- MD/PhD or other scientific training with relevant experience desirable; MBA/CFA desirable;
- 1-2 years of sell-side equity research experience in the life sciences sector desirable;
- FINRA Series 7, 86 and 87 licenses desirable;
- Solid financial analysis and modeling skills are essential;
- Exceptional writing skills are essential

Please email resumes to michael.king@wedbush.com